

Autism Risk & Management Speaker Bio

Dennis Debbaudt

Autism Risk & Safety Management

Speaker Bio

Dennis Debbaudt was first to address the interactions between law enforcement and people with autism in his 1994 report Avoiding Unfortunate Situations. He has since authored a full length book, over 30 reports, book chapters and produced innovative and acclaimed training videos for law enforcement and first responders such as paramedics, fire rescue, police, and hospital staff who may respond to an autism emergency. Dennis has written for the FBI's Law Enforcement Bulletin and is a cited resource for the Department of Homeland Security. He has developed training and consulted to the NYPD and Chicago Police Department. Since 1995, he has presented his multi-media training at the invitation of the Illinois Attorney General, the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children's Team ADAM, Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police conference, Fire Safety Educators of the Rockies Conference, Project Lifesaver International, Houston, Cincinnati, Toledo and New Hampshire training academies and Iceland 112 among many other conferences, for universities and school districts and in training rooms throughout North America and the United Kingdom. Dennis has been interviewed for reports in USA Today, New York Times, People Magazine, Chicago Tribune and CBC Radio and for many other print and broadcast media.

Dennis Debbaudt continues these efforts to help the global autism community through his books, speaking engagements, videos, publications, and autism training presentations.

The parent of a young man with autism, Dennis Debbaudt is known for his humor, insight and is one of most sought after speakers in the autism community. Check out the rest, then get the best to share his experience, knowledge, and passion at your conference or training session!

is a professional investigator and law enforcement trainer with over 15 years experience training law enforcement and first response professionals.

Dennis can be reached via his web site: <http://autismriskmanagement.com> email at ddpi@flash.net or call 772-398-9756.

Key Note Speaker: Dr. Temple Grandin

Temple Grandin is one of the best known success stories of what a person with high functioning autism can do with perseverance, creativity and intelligence. Dr. Grandin earned a PhD in animal science and became a prolific writer, presenter and authority on autism. Temple Grandin's wide influence on autism researchers, educators, therapists, parents and people with autism who hold her up as a role model is demonstrated by her popularity as a speaker and author. She has been interviewed extensively in magazines and on television and the recent subject of the Emmy award winning movie Temple.

Learn more about Dr. Grandin and a books she has authored at <http://www.templegrandin.com/>